TIPSTERS SPOT "FUGITIVE OF THE WEEK" TANNING IN HAVERHILL YARD

CONCORD, NH – Late yesterday afternoon, "Fugitive of the Week," Amy Beth Tremblay, 35, was arrested without incident by members of the US Marshals Fugitive Task Force from both NH and Mass. at a family member's Atwood Road residence.

Tremblay had been wanted on NH Federal warrant for bail violations. Ms. Tremblay was out on bail after being charged with conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute controlled substances.

This above arrest warrant was issued on March 10, 2017 and as part of the U.S. Marshals fugitive investigation, Tremblay was featured as the "Fugitive of the Week" on July 12th. The "Fugitive of the Week" was aired on WTPL-FM, WMUR-TV, The Union Leader, The Nashua Telegraph, The Patch, Foster's Daily Democrat, Manchester Information, the Manchester Ink Link and prominently featured on the internet. The "Fugitive of the Week" has been a very successful tool that has resulted in the location and arrest of numerous fugitives since its implementation in 2007. Additionally, the "Fugitive of the Week" is distributed statewide to all law enforcement officers.

Yesterday afternoon, members of the Marshals Fugitive Task Force were contacted by tipsters that reported seeing Miss Tremblay sunning herself in a family member's yard on Atwood Road in Haverhill, Mass. Members of the Fugitive Task Force quickly responded to the above location, where Ms. Tremblay was found sitting outside at the rear of the residence adjacent to her lounge chair where she had previously been spotted sitting in the sun.

Miss Tremblay was transported to the Merrimack County Jail in Boscawen, NH for processing and holding pending her initial court appearance at a later today at the US District Court in Concord, NH.

Since the inception of the New Hampshire Joint Fugitive Task Force in 2002, these partnerships have resulted in over 6,806 arrests (Updated as of 5/25/2017). These arrests have ranged in seriousness from murder, assault, unregistered sex offenders, probation and parole violations and numerous other serious offenses. Nationally the United States Marshals Service fugitive programs are carried out with local law enforcement in 94 district offices, 85 local fugitive task forces, 7 regional task forces, as well as a growing network of offices in foreign countries.
